

Boston 28 Sept. 1844.

Rev. Samuel J. May;
Dear Sir.

The Quarterly convention of Plymouth County A. S. Society, will be holden in Plymouth on Wednesday, the second of October (next week.)

The friends in Plymouth
have done & are doing what they can to induce & provide for a gathering of those who are interested in the cause. We expected several well known lecturers to be with us on the occasion, but now find ourselves mistaken.
C. L. Remond has promised to be there & beside him there is no certainty of another.
I have just learned (in No. 25 Cornhill where I now am) that your business engagements may not prevent your being with us on that occasion. If so, pray, in the name of humanity, come and help us. You will not suspect me of flattery in saying that no ^{antislavery} individual would be more acceptable than both to friends & foes. Come & stop at my house. Your expenses shall be paid.

Your friend & servant
Bourne Spooner

P. S. My esteemed friend Spooner wishes me to add a postscript. I know where your heart is so well, and how ready you are to do what in you lies to hasten that day of jubilee for which you have so long prayed and labored, that I am sure you will not need any of my entreaties to be added to those of Mr. Spooner, to induce you to attend the meeting at Plymouth, if you can conveniently make your arrangements to do so. Plymouth county is specially dear to your heart, and the people generally have a very high regard for you. Do go, if possible, and see them, and let them once more see and hear you. You are aware, perhaps, that poor Mr. Briggs has sadly faltered, and is no longer going onward to perfection. Your visit might be the means of doing him great good, for it is a pity that he should utterly apostatize.

We are all well at home. Bro. George left us on Thursday for Bath, Me., and will return to the city in a day or two. He wants to have an interview with you, and has left a note for you at 25, Cornhill.

My best regards to Mrs. May.

Yours, lovingly, as ever,
Wm. Lloyd Garrison.
